

What's after Culture? Assessing the Legacy

A two day conference in which the Core Cities Theology Network will come together:

- to experience and learn from Liverpool as the European Capital of Culture 2008
- to reflect on alternative spaces of hope with local communities
- to ask, 'what might be the next big idea for our cities?'

Guests facilitators:

Professor Graham Ward, University of Manchester;

Dr Doug Gray, University of Glasgow and John Flamson, University of Liverpool.

Dates: 11th – 13th September, 2008

Venue: Liverpool Hope University

Conference fees: £160 residential and £83 non-residential (fully inclusive)

Contact for further information: the Rev'd John Fielding

(email: RevJFielding@aol.com ; tel: 0151 722 9898)

This is the second conference organised by the Core Cities Theological Network.

See www.cctn.org.uk for further details and booking form.